Presentation Fashion Show 2013 - Designer Contract

Congratulations on being selected as a Designer for the 2013 Presentation Fashion Show, Glitter & Gold. It promises to be a fun and exciting event. As a Designer, you have the honor of designing and constructing a dress that will be worn on a model during one segment. You are responsible to construct the dress on time, bring it to scheduled fittings and make necessary alterations. You are invited to appear on stage briefly at the end of the designer segment and to attend the evening show in a gallery seat. Please complete this important questionnaire with your contact and other critical information. Completing the step 1 survey will take approximately 5-10 minutes start to finish. You cannot save mid-way. Before you begin, please make sure your parents approve your participation and gather your parent's contact information and your emergency contact information. All other answers you should know.

This contract confirms your intent to design a dress for the Presentation High School Fashion Show 2013.
